To Whom It May Concern:

It gives me a great deal of delight to write this letter of recommendation concerning Joshua McClure. I can whole-heartedly recommend him to you. Joshua has proven himself more-than-worthy of prayerful and financial support.

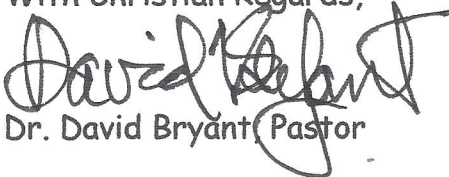

Consider The Following:

- He is a third-generation missionary. His parents and grandparents are successful and faithful servants of Jesus Christ, currently serving in the Republic of Palau and Saipan.
- He is experienced in a number of ways. He has taught Sunday School, led the "Young People's Group", directed congregational music and the choir, and preached the Gospel in Palau and Saipan on many occasions.
- He is talented, in that he can play the guitar, the banjo, the ukulele, and he sings to the delight of his hearers.
- He is not a novice, he is an experienced servant of Christ.

Joshua is a faithful member of New Testament Baptist Church, here in Pantego, Texas. It's my joy to be his pastor and friend.

I'm more-than-confident that whatever you may choose to invest in his ministry will reap eternal dividends!

With Christian Regards,

Dr. David Bryant (Pastor)
